Caribpure™ Pataua Oil

INCI - Oenocarpus bataua pulp oil

The Pataua is a large palm tree found abundantly in the lowlands of South America. Pataua oil is a popular and important oil used in cosmetics and as a culinary oil. A popular use in South America is as a hair loss prevention tonic. Pataua Oil is obtained from 100% pure patauai pulp by using cold pressing extraction with no preservatives or additives. This is a wild harvested product grown in the Brazilian Amazon with no pesticides or fertilizers.

Uses in cosmetics:

Caribpure™ Pataua Oil has a high oleic acid content which when applied in cosmetic uses promotes enhanced hydration improving skins appearance and leaving the skin silky smooth.

Caribpure™ Pataua Oil can be used in hair care, skincare products, soaps, moisturizers and anti-dandruff lotions.

We are pleased to add this exotic oil to our product line.
